A RESOLUTION

- 1 Celebrating one-hundred years of architectural education at Georgia Tech; and for other
- 2 purposes.
- 3 WHEREAS, in the academic year of 1908-1909, the Georgia School of Technology (as it
- 4 was known) initiated an architecture curriculum which has grown from a small
- 5 undergraduate program of local reputation to an internationally respected college; and
- 6 WHEREAS, with the broadening of the school's curriculum to include a degree that
- 7 combined applied art as well as technical skill, the Georgia Institute of Technology ("Georgia
- 8 Tech") stepped outside the niche it occupied as a first-rate technical school to take its place
- 9 among the premiere academic institutions in the "New South"; and
- 10 WHEREAS, graduates of the architectural program invented new building types and gave
- dramatic shape to the modernization of the "New South" as seen in fine, classical institutions
- designed by early renowned graduates, in art deco public and industrial buildings from the
- 13 1940s, and in Atlanta's distinctive skyscrapers, few of which have not involved Georgia Tech
- 14 graduates; and
- 15 WHEREAS, transformative ideas in architecture and urban design such as Atlantic Station
- and the Atlanta Beltline took shape in Georgia Tech's studios; and
- 17 WHEREAS, the College of Architecture launches a new century of design research and
- 18 education championing advancements in the arts and the built environment through academic
- 19 programs in architecture, building construction, city and regional planning, doctoral studies,
- 20 industrial design, and music, serving a key role in defining Georgia Tech as the technological
- 21 research university of the 21st century; and
- WHEREAS, the College of Architecture is a leading producer of research and analysis vital
- 23 to effective and sustainable communities, including urban design and smart growth, high

24 performance design and green building, assistive technology, design for health care and

- 25 healthy aging, spatial analysis and geographic information systems, and
- architecture/construction/engineering integration; and
- 27 WHEREAS, the centennial of architectural education at Georgia Tech is an opportunity to
- 28 recognize its enduring impact on the public interest of Georgia and the United States, and it
- 29 is fitting and proper to recognize this historic achievement.
- 30 NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES that
- 31 the members of this body commend the Georgia Tech College of Architecture and extend
- 32 congratulations to the individuals who have left their imprint on the community through their
- 33 contributions as students, faculty, alumni, staff, or administrators.
- 34 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Clerk of the House of Representatives is authorized
- 35 and directed to transmit an appropriate copy of this resolution to the College of Architecture
- dean, Alan Balfour, on behalf of the men and women of the Georgia Tech College of
- 37 Architecture.
